Discussion: Consider: What is it? What is your interpretation rationale? How does this context relate to surrounding contexts? Have there been post-depositional processes? Are there special characteristics of this context? How was this context formed? What do you think is the origin of this context? (Additional sketches may be drawn here if required).

C238 is a cut on north west side of the trench. The cut was surrounded by hard, compact clay. Through the observation. It's potentially a posthole. The finds we found in the pit was some burned pottery and bones.
